QUIET DAY AT THE RACE TRACK.

Six Events Produced Very Nice Competition, but Lacked Special Feature.

RUSHFIELDS AGAIN ROBBED.

For the Second Time in Three Days the Old Chestnut Has Been Beaten by Careless Riding.

Mondays are always a bit tame about the Pair Grounds race track, and yesterday was no exception to the general rule. A rather decent card was run off without spe-

The two feature races resulted in betting disappointments. Mr. Bruen by a rather and start presented the fourth race to inel, who was favored to the extent of me six lengths at the break. Varro had slight excuse, beyond the fact that he was given a very weak ride by little Redfern. He was off fairly well. Contrary to his last race, where he won, he began slowly and could scarcely keep up. Coming down the stretch, he was full of vigor and go. but Redfern jammed him into a pocket, where his speed could do no good. He finished going atrong, but it was too late. La Desfrous, who was almost left at the post, ran a good second, mostly through grace of the bad ride on Varro. Mr. Darden's filly ran a transfer or likely and the control of the bad ride on Varro. Mr. Darden's of the bad ride on Varro. Mr. Darden's filly ran a very creditable race. The famous Battus, also handleapped by the start, ran a strong race for half a mile, then blew up. Owing to the start the race was of no value as a means of ascertaining the merit of the horses at the weight.

In the last race Rushfields was beaten by Lee Bruno chiefly through the lax ride given him by Dale. Rushfields led all the way to the last eighth. He had Eugenia S., his closest competitor, beat to that point. Dale then sat down to take an easy jaunt home. Gilmore brought Lee Bruno up on his closest competitor, beat to that point. Dale then sat down to take an easy jaunt home. Gilmore brought Lee Bruno up on the inside with a wfid rush. He was all over Rushfields before Dale woke up. The belated whipping which the latter gave Rushfields could not land him a winner. Though the old horse came gamely under the bat, there was not time enough left to regain lost ground. Eugenia S. finished a good third. She lost enough ground making the stretch turn to have enabled her to win the race.

This is the second successive race Rushfields has lost by sleepy riding. Givens allowed him to be beaten by Aibert F. Dewey on Saturday in just such a way as Dale had him beaten yesterday.

The other races went off nicely and withcut any feature. Huntreesa and Miss Dorahad a nice duel in the first race, the former winning rather handily, Miss Dora seems a little weak and veasy in the hot weather. Dale's ride on Zoraide here was not of a nature to win him laurels. The second race saw some adherence to figures—Orris and Beana running where they should, with Midlan and Vedas close up. Cogswell received a puny ride from Redfern and fell out of it.

The third race fell to one of the horses Doctor Street recently sold to G. C. Baker. Queen Anne won handily, much favored by the start, ran second, and Curd Gillock, who was given a very poor finish, ran third.

O'Nelli gave Percy R. one of his best rides in the fifth race, and the old horse won handily. It was a peculiar race. Ben Frost, Reducer, Sue Johnson, all of whom should have been in front, falled to run even a decent race. Sue Johnson fell out of it at the stable turn, when she looked as if she was going to win. Reducer and Ben Frost Rot off badly and never could get up. Fred Hessig ran a decent race from a bad beginning.

COSSIP OF THE QUARTER STRETCH Charlie Ellison, who was skirmishing around John Schorr's stable two years ago and running light, is credited with winning $20,000 on Robert Waddell. Ellison made Bradley ride Bullman.

Chicago papers have been very good to im O'Leary's winter book. Now they say the lost $100,000 to Waddell's victory. They tredit Bradley with winning $20,000 out of the "Pa" himself says he did not bet a cent; that his reported bets last wir were published with a view of making public bet on Waddell.

It is really wonderful how well some of the horses Doctor Street has sold recently have been doing since they left him. He sold Doublet for $700 in California. He got to work right away and won half a dozen good races. Judge Murphy said yesterday that Doublet was worth $5,000. He sold Queen Anne for $200 to G. C. Baker last month and she ran a very fine race yesterday. Midian, another of Doctor Street's cast-offs, whom he let go for a song, also ran a ripping race yesterday, and was only benten by a big swerve at the finish.

Start bad; won handily; second driving. Winner, J. C. Ferriss, Jr.'s, b. c., 3, by Star I Sonoma. Spinel much favored by a ragged break; ran in front under restraint to the of the stretch. Here La Desirous, who had made up a lot of ground, challenged het the race to get up had taken everything out of her. Spinel came again under a drive, was badly ridden, every jump of it; had no speed at start, taken into pocket at stretch, held there all the way to last fifty yards. He came very fast when he got out. Varro casily the best horse in the race. Battus ran fast to the half mile, where he stopped. Thress practically left at the post.

The doctor is a good handler, but is quick to take prejudices against his horses. When he gets set against one of them, off he goes at any price. He has a couple of 2-year-olds at the Fair Grounds that would do some one some good if he got set against them. They are Potheen and Sambo.

Whatever may be said about racing in Chicago, it must be admitted that at any place where they can give Maude Gonne twenty pounds and a bad beating, there is some good racing. And when it comes to the standpoint of a gambler, the prices quoted by the Daily Racing Form, as posted at Washington Park, are extremely liberal. In one race, where George Arnold was 8 to 1. Tayon, favorite at 4 to 1; Isia, 8 to 1; Sevoy, 20 to 1; Gold d'Or. 20 to 1; Money Muss, 5 to 1; Sharp Bird, 20 to 1; The Rush, I to 1; Yellow Tail, 10 to 1. Those are prices. There are rings outside of Chicago which would lay 1 to 2 against that field and would cut to 1 to 3 the first sign of a $2 bet.

There are rings outside of Chicago which would lay I to 2 against that field and would cut to 1 to 3 the first sign of a 25 bet.

"Yes, our little horse won," said "Pa" Bradley after the numbers had gone up, "and I'm mighty glad he did, for mother—that's Mrs. Bradley—had just set her heart on Robert winning. I guess she believed in him more than I did, although I feit he would be a hard one for them to beat if he was within two lengths of the leader at the three-eighth pole. I knew that if he had to run the first mile in 1:49 he could still come on pretty strong.

"I didn't know how good some of these other colts might be at a mile and a half, but I knew mine could run the race on that fast track in 2:34 and finish galloping, and I figured he could beat 2:33 if pushed hard. I caught his first mile in 1:41%, and it seemed that they weren't running fast enough. But it turned out all right, anyway. Yes, he's a great little horse, and why shouldn't he be? His sire was a good one, and his dam, Virgie, was one of the best race mares that ever lived. One time at the old Garfield Park track she ran four races in four days, winning three of them, and was beaten only a heat in the fourth. We bred Robert Waddell on our home farm in Virginny, and we're mighty proud of the little horse, I tell you.

"How did I come to give Bullman the mount? Well, I don't know exactly, except that he was not riding anything in the race after they decided to scratch that Schorr filly, and I know he is a good jockey. Besides, he had ridden Robert once before this year and won on him. I had an offer of $2,000 from some parties to put up another jockey, but I kind of thought they were too anxious to have the jockey they wanted. So I offered Bullman the mount? Well, I don't know exactly, except that he wor. My instructions to him were to keep within two or three lengths of the leader for a mile and an eighth and then to let down the horse and make his run.

"Did I bet on the race? No. The stake money was good enough for me to run for. Well, I di but I guess that was just to public play.

"I could have sold Robert Waddell a good many times, but we don't want to part with film. One of your stock yards men-Tichenor, I believe his name is—made me a good offer for the gelding a few weeks ago, and I'm glad we didn't sell. Mrs. Bradley would not hear of it—she is attached to the horse."—Chicago Tribune.

feature on the card at the second day of the Washington Park meeting. The weather was at filing. The track was at its best and Gonfalon ran six furiongs in 1:13 flat. The bookmakers got too bold to suit the management, which ordered the display of cards shown in the ring in the first race taken down. There was, however, pienty of betting and not a favorite won. In the third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Advance Guard, the $-to-is choice, lay too far out of it when the pace was slow on the back stretch and finished third. T. C. Shaw's Mount Furnishes the Feature at Sheepshend Bay Track. New York, June 24.—Kamara, with Shaw up, won the Bay Ridge Handicap at one day. It was the feature event of the day's racing. She was at the good price of 5 to 1. Maid of Hariem was second choice, at 3 to 1. Kamara got off in tront, and made every post a winning one, going by the judges a length and a half before The Regent, Decanter and First Whip, who were heads apart. There was a great deal of crowding and foul riding during the race, for which little Michaels, on The Regent, was judged responsible by the stewards, and his mount was disqualified. Decanter was placed second and First Whip third. Scratches spolled the Zephyr Stakes, only three facing the starter. Disadvantage, the 1 to 3 favorite, won easily. Shaw, the jockey was again in form, riding three winners and one second in five mounts. Three favorites were successful. Track fast. Weather warm.

HIS BOW LEGS GAVE HIM AWAY. Alleged Wife-Slayer Arrested-Described in a Circular.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL New York, June 24.-Captain Titus re-

New York, June 24.—Captain Titus received word at police headquarters to-day that J. Wilfred Biondin, who is wanted by the police of Lowell, Masm., in connection with the murder of his wife, had been arrested at Brushton, N. Y. He had secured work at that place, and was apprehended through a description of him on a police circular.

Blondin is a French-Canadian and was employed in a mill at Lowell. He was married in February last, but subsequently left his wife for a time. He returned to her in April, and they took lodgings in Boston. On June 10 Biondin disappeared from Boston, and on the same day the headless body of his wife was found in a clump of bushes at Cheimsford near Lowell. The woman's head was found about haif a mile from the place, weighted down at the bottom of a brook, two days after this.

Blondin's most noticeable peculiarity of appearance consists of a pair of very pronounced bow legs, and it is thought that he was recognized by these.

a southbound train near Glenwood on the 18th, he smilingly answered, "Yes, sir; I did it."

He gave as his reason that a brakeman had kicked him off the train, and all his life he had a yearning desire to see a train go "straight up."

He chose the place with rare cunning. On one side was a forty-foot embankment and on the other a large lake, twenty feet deep. It was at the end of a curve, coming out of a cut down a steep grade, and no engineer on earth could have avoided the catastrophe. The timbers were piled parallel with the rails in such a manner that the pilot could not have knocked them off.

A section gang happened along and found the obstruction and captured Young near the roadside, where he attempted to conceal himself. He was sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary and took the dose with a complacent grin.

MISS YOCUM'S HEIRS TO RECEIVE MONEY.

James G. Young Admits That He Judge Spencer Decides Suit Which Followed Wreck of the Yacht Paul Jones.

> Judge Spencer decided yesterday in the suit to determine who is entitled to the cum, who, with his daughter, Florence L. Yocum, was lost on the yacht Paul Jones in the Guif of Mexico more than two years ago, that the money belongs to the estate of Miss Yocum.

According to the decision, after the expenses of administering Miss Yocum's estate and her debts are paid, five-sevenths estate and her debts are paid, five-sevenths of what remains of the insurance will be distributed among the maternal relatives of Miss Yocum, and Gettrude M. Harris and her sister, Nellie S. Scanabi, nieces of Mr. Yocum, will receive one-seventh cach. The latter two legatees would have been entitled to the residue of the fund had it been shown that Miss Yocum died before her father.

The Royal Arcanum, in which Yocum was insured, paid the money into court to be interpleaded for by the heirs of Yocum and his daughter. The case was taken under advisement several weeks ago.

Judge Spencer, after reciting the departure of the Yocum party from New Orleans, December 30, 1898, and the finding of portions of the yacht and the body of a girl who belonged to the party on an island in the Gulf of Mexico, said:

"The boat was wrecked and all perished—how is not known; nor can I tell from the evidence whether Yocum survived his daughter or she him; or that both perished at the same instant. Human probability is overwhelmingly against simultaneous death, and no presumption of law exists in the absence of evidence.

"In the case of a testator and legatee there is no contract or obligation on the part of the testator to create the legacy. Should he and the legatee die in a common disaster the law holds that the legacy has lapsed.

"In the case of a benefit certificate in a fraternal order, there being a definite agreement on the part of the order to pay the money to a designated individual, this payment should be made in accordance with the terms of the contract, unless reason to the contrary is shown; and the payment should be made in accordance with the terms of the contract, unless reason to the contrary is shown; and the payment should not be prevented merely by the death of the beneficiary and of the insured.

"Mr. Yocum's death is admitted and the money should be paid as provided in the contract, there being no evidence to show that Florence L. Yocum was not living at the time when her father died."
